

Monday Minute

Hostile Conception

Living With Purpose.....a book for your Center

Conceived in rape this speaker, singer/songwriter, author, licensed minister, decorative and fine artist, wife, mother is most importantly a lover of God and people. Her traumatic beginning has not stopped this woman. Finding out in 2005 that she was conceived when 8 men raped her mother could have destroyed her. However, Juda instead shares a contagious joy and purpose for living. Eager to talk to anyone about how believing the truth, which is NOT relative, will set you free. Just having it somewhere in the back of our mind does not set us free. Her own testimony compels her to reach out to those suffering from despair and hopelessness.

Check with your Local Bookstore
281-451-8460

Their Story...1956 Ann was walking home from watching The Ten Commandments when she was raped by 8 men. Soon she would have a decision to make. After finding out she was pregnant she was told she should have an abortion. But her words in a television interview on the day she met Juda were "I couldn't kill a puppy or a kitten so I couldn't kill a baby!" Ann met a priest that helped her find an unwed mothers' home.

So she stayed there until she gave birth to a little girl on Valentine's Day. She didn't want to give her away but she knew she couldn't keep her.

www.juda4praise.com

JUDA'S BOOK IS A MUST READ FOR EVERY CENTER

Words carry power. Positive and negative power. From the moment you open Hostile Conception, you will feel the power of each word as it pulsates from the page and draws tears from a place deep within.